Disclaimer

This certification is based on the accuracy and completeness of information provided by our suppliers. While SRAM has taken reasonable steps to ensure compliance, we rely on our supply chain for accurate and truthful disclosures. In the event of inadvertent contamination or misrepresentation by suppliers, SRAM will work diligently with customers and regulatory bodies to address any concerns. SRAM assumes no liability for damages arising from unforeseen contamination or noncompliance beyond our control.

Thank you for your continued partnership and for trusting SRAM to provide safe and compliant products.

Sincerely,
